Product name: Aloe Vera Powder

Aloe Vera Powder Description:

Aloe is the most widely used cosmetic in the world. Our aloe vera powder is 100% natural and pollution-free. It is made by grinding dried aloe vera leaves into proper meshes. The powder is light green, without any chemical additives and artificial colors.

Our aloe vera powder contains natural moisturizing factors, bacteriostat, vitamins, trace elements, fruit acids, monoacids and other active nutrients, which can delay the aging of human cells. There are three usages. The first aloe powder is a kind of stomachic agent. It can protect the gastric mucosa when it enters the gastrointestinal tract, can effectively prevent the large-scale generation of gastric acid, and can invigorate the stomach and spleen. The second type, aloe vera powder has a bactericidal and anti-inflammatory effect, can prevent bacterial infections, and can enhance the body's immunity. Third, aloe vera powder can have detoxification effect. If there are some toxic and harmful substances in the body, aloe vera powder can have a neutralizing effect.It has a positive effect on the defense against carcinogens, reduces free radicals, balances the pH in the body, purifies organs, and has a positive effect on our emotional tension.

You can also use our aloe vera powder directly by mixing it with other herbs in cosmetics and herbal practices and formulations. Add moisture and condition the hair, nourish new growth, soothe and support the healing of irritated scalp, help stimulate growth, balance the pH of the scalp, and can be used in many ways to make your hair soft and shiny .
