Product name: Cucumber Powder

Cucumber Powder Description:

Our cucumber powder is made from high-quality cucumbers. Each product is thoroughly cleaned, trimmed, cut and selected. The raw materials are dried by controlled, moderately heated forced air. After dehydration, the cucumbers are sorted, sieved and selected to the correct size, without sugar and any chemical additives.

Cucumber powder is rich in vitamin E, cucumber enzymes, and also contains trace elements such as chromium. Regular consumption of cucumber powder can resist aging and promote metabolism. The trace elements can also lower blood sugar and play an important role in the dilution of blood sugar. . Moreover, our cucumber powder also has the effects of clearing away heat, quenching thirst, distilling water and reducing swelling.

You can take our cucumber powder directly in warm water, or use it as a sleep mask at night, mix it with pure water and stir it evenly, apply it on your face, take it off for 15 to 20 minutes, and wash it off with water.
