Product name: Freeze-dried blackcurrant

Freeze-dried blackcurrant Description:
What we love about freeze-dried blackcurrants is that they have more application options than fresh blackcurrants. Whether used in baked goods, candy, snacks, drinks or desserts, freeze-dried blackcurrants are nutritious and tasty. Freeze-dried blackcurrant uses the most advanced freeze-dried technology to lock all the nutrients in fresh blackcurrant, and we absolutely do not add any preservatives, sweeteners, sugar and sulfites, while you enjoy the rich nutrition of freeze-dried blackcurrant, you can be 100% assured of its safety.

Freeze-dried blackcurrant is rich in vitamin C, phosphorus, magnesium, potassium, calcium, anthocyanins, phenols and other substances. It has strong anti-cancer and anti-cancer effects, and has obvious effects on preventing the occurrence of tumors, delaying aging, regulating human physiological functions, enhancing immunity, and also has beauty and weight loss functions.

Our freeze-dried blackcurrants come in whole fruit shape to suit many of your purposes. Freeze-dried blackcurrant can be used in baked goods, backpacks, snacks, and condiments. Its tightness enhances flavor and embellishes the appearance of foods to make them pleasing to the eye and appetising. Like our other freeze-dried fruits, we often add freeze-dried blackcurrants to smoothies, cereals, candies, cocktails, desserts, and milk and yogurt. To save even more time, you can also use water to make a warm and nutritious drink in an instant.
