Product name: Freeze Dried Broccoli

Freeze Dried Broccoli Description:

Our freeze dried broccoli is made from organically certified greenhouse vegetable bases. It is cleaned, trimmed, precisely cut and made with the most advanced vacuum freeze-drying technology. It does not add any preservatives, artificial colors, and nitrites. Customers provide 100% fresh and original freeze dried broccoli.

The nutritional value of freeze-dried broccoli is relatively high, which is rich in vitamins, carotene, flavonoids and a variety of mineral elements. It is also rich in vitamin C, vitamin A and carotene, which can effectively enhance the skin's ability to resist damage and keep the skin elastic. It also contains flavonoids. Consumption of some freeze-dried broccoli in moderation can prevent high blood pressure and coronary heart disease. Broccoli is a high-fiber vegetable. It can also reduce the absorption of sugar in the gastrointestinal tract, thereby lowering blood sugar, thereby effectively preventing diabetes.

You can use our freeze dried broccoli in soup, chili or pasta sauce. After the delicious pasta is made, sprinkle with our freeze dried broccoli, mix and stir. After tasting, it will increase its special flavor, delicious and fragrant!
