Product name: Freeze Dried Cactus Fruit Powder

Freeze Dried Cactus Fruit Powder Description:

High altitude means the soil is fertile and sunlight helps to maximize growth. And our freeze dried cactus fruit powder is selected from high-altitude cactus as raw materials, using vacuum freeze-drying technology to retain all its nutrients and flavor, without any chemical additives and pigments.

Our freeze dried cactus fruit powder contains 10 natural essential amino acids, a natural source of fiber, and is rich in antioxidants, potassium and vitamin C. When included in a balanced diet, it may help support a healthy immune system and gastrointestinal function. It has low organic calories, no sugar, and high fiber content, making it a very good edible product.

Most customers choose to use freeze dried cactus fruit powder for smoothie making, and some customers use it for flavoring and coloring fruit milkshakes.
