Product name: Freeze Dried Hami Melon Powder

Freeze Dried Hami Melon Powder Description:

Our freeze dried hami melon powder is a natural, non-polluting green food that is non-GMO, gluten-free, no added sugar or coloring. Using the most advanced international freeze-drying technology, GMP workshop constant temperature and pollution-free production, will give you a 100% experience of all nutrients!

freeze dried hami melon powder has only 60 calories per cup and is composed of approximately 90% water. It is a good source of vitamin C, has the same potassium content as bananas and has fewer calories. Honeydew is also a source of the B vitamins thiamine, niacin, pantothenic acid and the trace mineral copper.

freeze dried hami melon powder can also add fruity fragrance and unique melon flavor to your cooking food. Add our freeze dried hami melon powder to the toast salad sauce in the morning. The refreshing and sweet flavor fills the entire mouth and starts a beautiful mood to the day!
