Product name: Freeze Dried Mango Powder

Freeze Dried Mango Powder Description:

Our freeze dried mango powder uses advanced vacuum drying technology to dry the ripe yellow mangoes, and then grinds and powders them with a freeze vacuum dryer to retain the complete nutrients and the original flavor of the fruit. We guarantee that no chemical additives and flavoring agents are added.

Freeze dried mango powder is rich in vitamins A, B, C, B-6 and β-carrots. It is a natural supplement for the nutrients needed by the human body, and it is rich in iron, which helps fight anemia. Freeze dried mango powder can also improve the skin, clean pores, remove dirt and oil, and is the best choice for beautiful women to keep their skin healthy.
Our freeze dried mango powder can be added to tea, soda, juice and smoothies, and can also be poured into beverages, yogurt or other beverages to increase the flavor of mango.

The most common edible can be added to oat milk in the morning to add vitamins and taste the mango flavor like jelly.
