Product name: Freeze Dried Mulberry Powder

Freeze Dried Mulberry Powder Description:

Our freeze dried mulberry powder is produced from fresh and mature purple-red or black mulberry through a special process, with uniform fluidity, fine powder, gorgeous purple color, slightly sour taste, and sweet fruity taste.

Freeze dried mulberry powder is rich in nutrients such as rutin and anthocyanins, and has good anti-aging and anti-ulcer effects. Improve the body's metabolism, promote the body's digestion and absorption, and balance blood lipids. For people who do not sleep well at night, regular and quantitative consumption of our freeze-dried mulberry powder can alleviate sleep problems such as neurasthenia.

Because of its special flavor, it is very suitable for making smoothies, drinks, water, yogurt, desserts, and snacks. It can also be used for skin whitening and anti-aging. Add appropriate egg white and freeze-dried mulberry powder and mix with water, grind it into a paste, stick it on your face for 20 minutes, take it off, and rinse off with water.
