Product name: Freeze Dried Purple Sweet Potato Powder

Freeze Dried Purple Sweet Potato Powder Description:

Our freeze dried purple sweet potato powder is hand-selected and carefully tested to ensure that they are grown organically, then freeze-dried (dehydrated) and powdered. This method allows the powder to retain the nutrients and flavor from the purple sweet potato, and it can remove any moisture. And leave the original flavor of the fruit to provide customers with higher nutritional value!

Our freeze dried purple potato powder is rich in vitamins, minerals, amino acids, dietary fiber and anthocyanins. Dietary fiber can improve the health of the gastrointestinal tract and promote the digestion and absorption of the human body. Its natural purple color is also a healthy coloring agent. A large amount of fiber also helps to provide a feeling of fullness. It is the first choice of freeze dried powder for women who want to keep figure and want to lose weight.

The natural purple color of freeze dried purple sweet potato powder is used by many customers for baking, smoothies, beverage and food coloring, and making purple sweet potato cakes. It has a sweet taste and low calories. Before going to bed at night, if you feel hungry, you can make a cup of purple potato batter, and a small cup will wipe away the hunger!
