Product name: Matcha Powder

Matcha Powder Description:

Our matcha powder is fresh tea leaves carefully selected and picked by experienced tea farmers, and dried on the same day, using the steam curing method, and then dried and ground into a light green fine powder without adding any chemical additives and artificial colouring.

Matcha powder is rich in nutrients and trace elements necessary for the human body. Its main components are tea polyphenols, caffeine, free amino acids, chlorophyll, protein, aromatic substances, cellulose, vitamin C, A, B1, B2, B3, B5 , B6, E, K, H, etc., more than 30 kinds of trace elements potassium, calcium, magnesium, iron, sodium, zinc, selenium, fluorine, etc. The most important tea polyphenols can remove excessive harmful free radicals in the body, and can regenerate high-efficiency antioxidants such as α-VE, VC, GSH, SOD, etc. in the human body, thereby protecting and repairing the antioxidant system, and enhancing the body's immunity, It has significant effects on anti-cancer and anti-aging. Long drinking green tea can lower blood sugar, blood lipids, and blood pressure, thereby preventing cardiovascular and cerebrovascular diseases.

You can mix our matcha powder into smoothies, milkshakes, juices and other healthy drinks. Or at a weekend party, bake delicious matcha cakes and chocolates. The rich matcha fragrance will definitely give you an excellent taste and smell experience! You can also sprinkle it on fruit salad or breakfast porridge to increase the refreshing flavor of matcha.
