Product name: Oat Grass Powder

Oat Grass Powder Description:

Our oat grass powder consists of 100% ground dried oat grass stems. It has a natural green color. In terms of taste, it has a strong aroma and a strong sour taste. Moreover, our oat grass powder is very easy to dissolve, and it is an essential natural coloring agent and food product in the family kitchen.

Oat grass powder is a source of β-carotene, vitamin K, folic acid, calcium, iron, protein, fiber, and vitamin C and B vitamins. Oat grass powder also has a relaxing and stimulating effect, nourishes and strengthens the nervous system. It may relieve symptoms of arthritis, rheumatism, stress, depression, weakness, fatigue, nerve tremor, epilepsy and other symptoms. It is also used for thyroid and estrogen deficiency, degenerative diseases such as MS, and colds, especially recurrence or persistence.

It has a positive effect on the defense against carcinogens, reduces free radicals, balances the pH in the body, purifies organs, and has a positive effect on our emotional tension.

You can use our oat grass flour to make delicious oatmeal steamed buns. When making steamed buns, you need to match the right amount of flour, and put the two in a ratio of 1:1. Combine a suitable amount of warm water to synthesize the dough. After it is fermented, it will be made into a steamed bun and you can eat it after being steamed. It is fragrant and delicious, and has a strong feeling of fullness!
