Product name: Spinach Powder

Spinach Powder Description:

Spinach powder provides an excellent way to boost our daily intake of greens. It holds just as much power as fresh spinach leaves, but its super-concentrated form makes it more convenient for trail cooking needs. It's light in weight, easy-to-use, lasts longer, but tastes, looks and smells as real spinach.

Our spinach powder is rich in vitamin C, carotene, protein, and minerals such as iron, calcium and phosphorus. It also contains a large amount of crude plant fiber, which has the effect of promoting intestinal peristalsis, conducive to defecation, and can promote pancreatic secretion and help digestion. It has a therapeutic effect on hemorrhoids, chronic pancreatitis, constipation, anal fissure and other diseases. Among them, spinach powder is rich in carotene, vitamin C, calcium, phosphorus and a certain amount of iron, vitamin E and other beneficial ingredients, which can supply a variety of nutrients to the human body; its iron content is good for iron deficiency anemia The role of adjuvant therapy.

You can prepare 500 grams of spinach powder and eggs, add a certain proportion of water and stir, add yeast to knead into a dough, and let it stand for one to two hours to cook spinach buns, or use a rolling pin to make dumpling noodles and noodles to make delicious spinach dumplings , Spinach noodles.
