Product name: Beer Yeast Powder

Beer Yeast Powder Description:

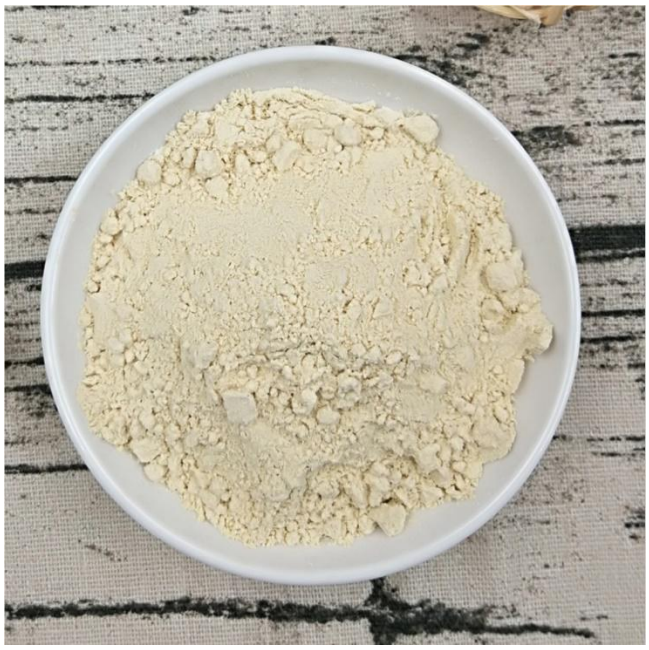

Our brewer yeast powder is a light brown-yellow powder made by separating the fermented yeast from the beer, dehydrating after drum drying, ensuring that no chemical additives and artificial colors are added, and it retains 100% of its flavor and nutrition! Pure natural green supplement!

Beer yeast powder is rich in vitamin B complex, protein, iron and chromium. It is used to treat digestive and respiratory problems! Because beer yeast powder is rich in protein, iron and vitamin B, it can support breastfeeding and can be used as a supplement for breastfeeding mothers to support breastfeeding and produce more milk! It is recommended for breastfeeding mothers to take it as a dietary supplement. Not only does it support breastfeeding, it can also increase energy levels, soothe emotions, and fight fatigue.

You can drink our beer oatmeal with water before meals. You can also add malt powder, milk, soy milk, oatmeal, together with boiling water, to make breakfast nutritious oatmeal porridge, add yogurt, the taste will be better.
