Product name: Freeze Dried Cherries

Freeze Dried Cherries Description:

Our freeze dried cherries use raw materials from organic farms to ensure 100% green food. After careful selection by fruit farmers, they are completely dried and dehydrated using advanced freeze-drying vacuum dehydration. The finished product is full of color, large particles, bright colors, and unique to cherries. The sweetness of the cherries also retains the original nutritional elements of the cherry. No sugar, artificial coloring and various chemical additives are added, so you can buy it with confidence.

Freeze dried cherries are rich in vitamin E, as well as sugar, carotene, iron, calcium and other trace elements, which are rich in nutritional value. Moreover, the high iron content of freeze-dried cherries supplements the human body's demand for iron, promotes hemoglobin production, and prevents iron deficiency anemia; rich in dietary fiber, can promote the body's gastrointestinal motility and help the body metabolize toxins. Regular consumption of our freeze-dried cherries can enhance appetite, supplement the vitamins needed by the body, and beautify the skin.

Our freeze dried cherries are mostly used to make baked cakes to add color and design sense; some customers choose as snacks, adding some sweetness to the boring life, most of them choose as office snacks! After all, who doesn't like to eat sweet granulated cherries?
