Product name: Freeze Dried Longan Powder

Freeze Dried Longan Powder Description:

Our freeze dried longan powder is vacuum freeze-dried to make dried longan by freeze-drying equipment, and then ground into a white powdery finished product in a GMP workshop. This operation process keeps the color, taste, and nutrients of longan to the maximum extent. No nitrous acid and artificial coloring are added.

Freeze Dried Pure Longan Powder is high in vitamin C, which is one reason why it is so vital in a healthy diet. One tablespoon of Longan Fruit Powder provides almost a full day's requirement. Because Longan Powder is rich in vitamin C and other nutrients, daily consumption might provide several health benefits. The Longan Fruit contains high quantities of food Iron and therefore it is effective in stimulating blood flow and possibly support the reduction anaemia. Longan traditionally is a fruit that is said to increase energy levels with additional long term positive effects, such as supporting restful sleep and good memory.

Women experience a difficult day every month. At this time, a cup of brewed longan drink will not only replenish blood but also promote the discharge of congestion.
