Product name: Freeze Dried Mangosteen Powder

Freeze Dried Mangosteen Powder Description:

In Thailand and throughout Indonesia, mangosteen has long been highly regarded for its medicinal properties and has been used for thousands of years. For centuries, Buddhist monks have been eating this fruit, thinking it is a miraculous fruit. Our freeze-dried mangosteen powder is made from the white pulp of mangosteen. The color is pale white powder, which is easy to dissolve and has the unique fruity flavor of mangosteen. It does not add any chemical additives and pigments.

Freeze Dried Mangosteen Powder contains most of its nutrients and over forty xanthones. Xanthones are natural plant chemicals that demonstrate a list of exceptional properties for good health. Although Xanthones is also found in some other tropical fruits, there are no other plants that contain more than mangosteen.

Most users will use our freeze dried mangosteen powder for beverage production, with the unique refreshing sweetness of mangosteen, and it is also a taste bud enjoyment while supplementing nutrition.
