Product name: Freeze Dried Papaya

Freeze Dried Papaya Description:

Our freeze-dried papaya is carefully selected by experienced fruit growers. Using the world's advanced low-temperature vacuum freeze-drying technology, fresh fruits are peeled and vacuum freeze-dried to make delicious freeze-dried papaya cubes, retaining the original taste, color and luster. nutrient. We guarantee that we do not add any chemical additives and artificial colors, and provide customers with 100% green and natural freeze-dried food!

Freeze-dried papaya contains carotene and rich vitamin C, has a strong antioxidant capacity, can help the body repair tissues, eliminate toxic substances, enhance human immunity, and help the body resist viruses including influenza A. Among them, papain can break down fat into fatty acids; modern medicine has found that papaya contains an enzyme that can digest protein, which is beneficial to the digestion and absorption of food by the human body, so it has the effect of strengthening the spleen and eliminating food. The carbohydrates, proteins, fats, vitamins and a variety of essential amino acids contained in the body can effectively supplement the body's nutrients and enhance the body's ability to resist diseases.

Our freeze-dried papaya can be added with a certain amount of milk, red dates, and goji berries to make a delicious papaya milk soup. It can also beautify the skin and help defecation; it can also be directly used as an office snack, such a natural flavor of freeze-dried during rest and dinner. The fruit must be very popular with girls!
