Product name: Freeze Dried Passion Powder

Freeze Dried Passion Powder Description:

Our freeze dried dragon fruit powder is light yellow in color and has a light, sweet and sour fruity and berry-like taste. Moreover, our freeze-dried passion fruit powder is processed by a refrigerated drum dryer, which retains the natural color, flavor, nutritional value and particle size of fresh fruits without adding any coloring or chemical additives.

The rich vitamin C in passion fruit can promote skin cell metabolism, effectively purify the body, and avoid the deposition of toxic substances in the body. For women who love beauty, its anti-aging effect has dominated everything! The carotene and SOD effective enzyme components contained in passion fruit have the effect of scavenging free radicals in the human body and resisting aging.

This fruit is native to South America, but its exotic flavor is becoming more and more popular, and it is often used in beverages and desserts. Our freeze dried passion fruit powder can be used in combination with sugar to provide a perfectly colored coating for jellies and sauces, and enhance the flavor without adding liquid. They can also be used in confectionery fillings, desserts, breakfast cereals, yogurt seasonings, and any application that requires fresh fruit flavor. It's time to add a serving to your smoothies, baked goods and yogurt. The excellent antioxidant and fiber content means that eating this fruit will help you have a good day.
